

MONDAY, MAY 13, 3 A. M.

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS.

St. Louis, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and Louisville Railroads.
On and after Monday, April 15, 1861, trains will leave
St. Louis and Chicago Express Mail, 7:30 A. M.;
St. Louis and N. Y. Express, 7:45 P. M.;
Trains arrive at New Albany as follows:

Louisville Express, 4:30 A. M.;
Louisville Mail, 7:30 P. M.

Louisville and Lexington Railroad.

Passenger Train No. 1, 7:30 P. M.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

Nashville and Memphis Mail Train, daily, 12:30 P. M.

Elizabethtown, 12:30 P. M.

Hardin, Elizabethtown, and L. & N. Train, 4:30 P. M.

MISTAKE CORRECTED.—We are informed that the boxes received over the Jeffersonville Railroad yesterday and reported to us as containing muskets were but heavy linen goods consigned to Messrs. M. & D. of this city to be forwarded. The boxes were heavy as all boxes containing linen are.

The suspicious circumstance of the placing off of the address at Jeffersonville and the arrival of a new one has been explained to us as follows: We are glad to find that this was not, what there was certainly no reason to think it, a case of smuggling of arms for the use of men in a insurrection against the Government.

TAXIERS.—DEAR SIR.—I am the manager of the Young Men's of our State club; I am desirous to have a place to place them in a position to guard our home and friends and all that is dear and dear to us, they deserve such assistance and encouragement as we can bestow, for to refuse to exert, or for any indecision to any lawful order or command whatever, be it ever so slight, will be most inappropriate. We therefore rejected this, 20th ult. We, however, have arranged with the management of the Theatre for a benefit this evening. The final comedy in the English language, Sheridan's "School for Scandal," will be given at the "Swiss Swan." These furnish a sufficient attraction to secure a full house, but when the object of the entertainment is considered, we do not see how any head of a family can refuse to exert his efforts to crowd the Theatre to an unprecedented extent.

CITY BUSINESS.—There was a special session of the two boards of General Council on Saturday.

There was no definite action in reference to a proposition to send commissioners to Washington to remonstrate against the blockade of the port of Louisville.

A resolution appropriating ten thousand for the benefit of the poor was passed together with a sum of a few cents of twenty cents were to be deducted.

A resolution was passed requiring the members of the Home Guard to return the arms in their possession to the Mayor when called for, before they shall receive such arms.

LECTION RETURNS.—We have some additional returns from the election for delegates to the Board of State Convention.

Monroe—Total vote 1,181, but one which was disallowed.

Warren—For the Union 1,583. The number of votes cast last Presidential election, in all, was 1,912.

Russell—There were 1,057 votes cast, the largest ever given. Of the number 789 for the Union.

Monroe—Total vote 594, but 4 against the Union.

Franklin—For the Union 833.

Muhlenberg—For the Union ticket 1,376, against 3.

Town of Louisville.—This old and popular organization will give their first entertainment in this city at Masonic Temple this evening. We all have a remembrance of the choice music drawn from their magical halls, and need no opportunity to induce us to attend their exhibitions. Owing to the pecuniary embarrassments of the time a price of a admission has been reduced to twenty-five cents.

THE SPRING RACES.—The spring meeting over the Fairview Course near this city will take place on Saturday, the 19th inst. Many of the best steeds in the country are already in attendance, and there is a prospect for rare sport and a large attendance.

Mr. J. M. Oliver, the owner of the Fair, the blind negro man, was robbed of $350 at the Everett, Illinoian, St. Louis, on Monday, April 10, and the blind, H. W. Webb, and that night but the hour of the morning saw her from seizure. The Webster says that letters of marquis and reprisal were issued on the 29th, and that three vessels—the Webb, Calonne, and Mardon—were all released, and are doubtless now in the harbor.

Some vicious individual cut the flag-ropes attached to the Union pole at the foot of Clay street on Saturday. All persons are warned not to alterate the pole hereafter as a vigilan guard will be kept hereafter in the vicinity.

WE regret to learn that the residence of Col. B. F. Dill, one of the citizens of the Memphis, was destroyed by fire on Thursday night, April 11, occasioning heavy loss. The fire is supposed to have been the result of incendiarism.

FOR CAMP MONTGOMERY.—For the accommodations of the men who are to visit Camp Montogmery, an encampment of the 1st Regt. of the 1st Cavalry, the company will run an excursion train, leaving, say, at 6:30 A. M. Fare by h. w. 50¢.

WE are induced to say, Mr. Geo. C. Wilson, the well-known Adams Express Messenger, for Southern papers.

THE HOPKINVILLE MERCURY is sorry to hear that the eloquent but eccentric Rev. Fountain of the Methodist Church, of Jeffersonville, a man of many talents, near Louisville of Friday, was found dead in his bed, and there was no doubt that he would die. He had got intoxicated at Taylorville.

THE Rev. W. C. McNeil, of the Methodist Church, a foeman of the Prince of Wales, near Memphis on Wednesday, while in the act of drawing a bucket of water, and was drowned. He was on his way, with his family, from Illinois to Arkansas.

FATALLY INJURED.—A man by the name of John Blizzard, was found yesterday, lying along-side railroad track, some distance south of Louisville, very badly mangled—supposed to have been run over by the train, having got off the end of the track.

WE are induced to say, that Queen Victoria has sunk into settled melancholy since the death of her mother, and it is feared she will not recover her mind. In consequence, drawing-rooms have been put off again.

PUTTING DOWN THE ROLL.—All the inspectors of the Southern custom-houses, except two, have been discharged by order of the Secretary of the Treasury. The micks are ready to leave the collector pretty much alone.

COL. LIEUT. RICHARD S. SMITH, of the U. S. Army, and his wife, Captain during the siege by the S. Carolina troops, has escaped his confinement, and returned to Petersburg, Virginia.

GENERAL BOURGEOIS.—Gen. Bourgeois, the head of Fort Sumter, passed through Atlanta, Ga., on the 29th from Montgomery. He has directed first for Charleston, then for the North.

THE Telegraph reports the Ohio Bells and Mass, seized by the authorities of Napoleon, as under command of General Pillow, who will arm and make an attack on Cairo.

AT AN election for officers of the Second Regiment of Kentucky, at Camp Clay, near Cincinnati, on Friday, Major Wm. W. Woodruff of this city, was elected Major.

FOR LINCOLN.—The blacksmith's shop connected with Farnsworth's foundry in Madison was destroyed by fire on Thursday. Loss $2,000.

THE First regiment of the Kentucky State Guard arrived on Saturday evening, and made a good, solidly appearance.

[Special Correspondence of the Louisville Journal.]
By W. H. COOPER, Louisville, Ky.
Tuesday, May 13, 1861.

The Senate to-day has been considering a bill to allow the banks to suspend specie payments, and also an act postponing the circuit and other courts in the State. Neither subject was finally settled, but both are special orders for Monday.

10 Teleg. to the Cincinnati Journal.

DETROIT, May 10.

The Virginians are collecting forces, and are preparing to dispute every foot of ground, and to drive the rebels from the interior of the state.

The Richmond Whigs more than intimates that if necessary the Virginians will invade the State, and to prevent underhanded policy, and a strict enforcement of the Southern 42d-claw will commence. A large 42d-claw is now ready, and the Virginians are determined to use it.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are suffering, and require legislative protection under the Constitution, and the Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

They are sending the State to the front, and in doing so will be certain to be in a position to effect a local protection.

On motion of Mr. Burman the committee was instructed of 51 to 51 to report the names of commissioners for the purchase and distribution of the arms and munitions proposed in the bill. This vote, it will be seen, entirely negatived the bill.

The Virginians are to be regarded as an evidence of their disloyal and want of confidence in the State.

